Jenner Critical Of Pay Awarded Fired Employees

Washington, Jan. 12 (AP)—Jen. Jenner (R-Ind.) sharply criticized a United Nations tribunal today for its award of damages to American employees dismissed by the U.N. after refusing to answer questions about Communist ties.

The four-member tribunal, an agency created by the U.N. to review appeals from staff members, ruled last fall in favor of 11 U.S. citizens who appealed dismissals by the U.N. Secretary General. The tribunal ordered them reinstated or paid indemnities.

They were among more than a score of Americans, who, when questioned by the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee in a search for any disloyalty among U.S. citizens employed by the U.N., refused to answer questions on the ground of possible self-incrimination.

Tribunal Set Ruling

The tribunal ruled that such refusal was not in violation of U.N. staff rules.

Jenner is chairman of the Internal Security Subcommittee. He issued a statement in connection with the publication of testimony taken at a public hearing in New York last Sept. 24 from Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., U.S. representative to the United Nations.

The Senator noted that Lodge condemned the tribunal's decision and promised to try to get it revised. Lodge also told the subcommittee he would try to have a U.S. citizen placed on the tribunal, now composed of lawyers of other nations.

Jenner said the subcommittee feels a tribunal made up entirely of foreign lawyers "cannot have a correct opinion of public sentiment in the United States or an adequate understanding of our efforts to rid the United States of its subversive elements."

Home Town Stuff

By R. H. NICHOLS

Lloyd Hill, manager of the B. F. Goodrich Company store in Vernon, has received a bulletin showing the local store listed among the top four in the Dallas district in the number of active accounts per salesman. Just to get an idea of what this rating means a study of merchandising has been made in a number of national merchandising organizations and it has been determined that a good average is 110 accounts for each salesperson. With that as a basis the Goodrich Company grade their retail outlets. It is interesting to know that the Vernon store is among the top four in this rating in the Dallas district. The Vernon store average is 116 accounts per salesman. It is interesting to know also that stores with the highest average number of accounts are leaders in net profits.

I think that is an important fact to remember. It applies to all kinds of business and all activities, social, religious or otherwise. If we want to make a success in business or anything else we need to see more people. We will not make a sale or get a commitment every time a call is made but if enough calls are made the volume will come. This isn't a plug for B. F. Goodrich Company. They didn't invent the idea. They merely adopted it in their business. Congratulations are due Lloyd Hill for having his store up among the leaders in the Goodrich organization.

Attending the state-wide evangelistic rally being held in Fort Worth by the Texas Baptist Convention are the following from the First Baptist Church: Dr. E. S. James, pastor; Rev. Young Tucker, associate pastor; and J. Q. Woodard, music director.

The only ice "casualty" I have heard of during the recent snow and ice storm was W. B. Bingham, Justice of the Peace, who slipped on the curb in front of Sewell's Drug Store Monday morning. He suffered bruises all over his body, but no bones were broken, and he is reported to be resting satisfactorily at the Vernon Hospital. It happened to be Mr. Bingham's birthday, so he had to spend the day in the hospital, which is not a very good way to celebrate one's birthday.

Airman Enters Innocent Plea In Arson Trial

Breckenridge, Jan. 12 (AP)—Airman Orville Miller's statement that he set fire to a Wichita Falls planing mill was read to the 90th District Court here today over strong objections of the defense council.

The 19-year-old airman from Decatur, Ill., said he set three fires in Wichita Falls because the town was dull. He wanted excitement. He pleaded innocent yesterday.

He is being tried on the first count of a three count indictment. This is a charge of setting the $25,000 Quality Planing Mill ablaze March 7, 1953.

The trial was moved here on a change of venue.

Tells of Setting Fire

Miller's statement described in detail how he took keesene-soaked rags, ignited them and tossed them through a partially opened window of the mill building.

It described how he drove around town in a taxi while he waited for the fire alarm to be turned in.

Clarence Cassey, a Wichita Falls watchmaker who lives next door to the mill, told the court how Miller used a neighborhood phone to call the fire chief at Sheppard Air Force Base and tell him of the fire. Miller told the Sheppard fire chief he better come help direct the fire fighting.

He is also under indictment and is to be tried later on charges of setting the Nov. 3, 1952, blaze which destroyed the North Texas Furniture Co. and adjacent stores with a $590,000 loss, and a Feb. 5, 1953, fire at the United Electric Service Co.'s Magicaire Division with a $100,000 loss.

President Asks Strong Reserve

Washington, Jan. 12 (AP)—President Eisenhower Tuesday asked the National Security Training Commission to work closely with the Office of Defense Mobilization in developing plans for maintaining an adequate military reserve establishment.

In a letter to Maj. Gen. Julius Ochs Adler, the Commission chairman, Eisenhower noted that the Commission recently completed a lengthy study of universal military training proposals. The Commission recommended a start on UMT.

Big Four Conference May Not Be Held

Berlin, Jan. 12 (AP)—The continuing deadlock between representatives of the three Western powers and the Russians over a site for the projected Big Four foreign ministers meeting raised Allied concern Tuesday as to whether the conference would come off at all.

The failure of the talks between the four Berlin commandants on arrangements to produce any results thus far posed a genuine threat to the scheduled Jan. 25 opening of the big parley, some Western sources said.

Lodge Says U. N. Prevents Start of World War III

Houston, Jan. 12 (AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., says the United Nations, however primitive, stands between the United States and World War III, the extinction of human freedom, or both.

Lodge, chief U. S. delegate to the United Nations, said the international organization is "an intelligent first step toward building a barrier of justice between peace-loving peoples and international anarchy."

Spoke in Houston

He spoke here last night under sponsorship of the Houston area

United Nations Council.

Lodge, observing that there is no automatic device to insure peace, said the body provided a place where public opinion is developed to make things happen in spite of Iron Curtains. He said it was a place where public reactions throughout the world were sensed almost immediately and where closer tab can be kept on what the Communists are doing in the war of ideas.

Russia's participation, Lodge said, is a check on unlimited expansion of Communism because Soviet leaders can neither control nor destroy the United Nations organization.

"They do not dare leave it," he asserted.

Need for UN to Grow

Purely from the American standpoint, he added, the need for the UN will grow as rapidly as science progresses.

Only the Soviet Union, of the 60 nations comprising the UN, can maintain itself alone, Lodge said, and he accused the Russians of being self-sufficient only through "harsh slave labor."

"The United States," the UN delegate said, "cannot exist without supplies far in excess of what we produce here. If we were deprived as few as 20 essential materials we would be completely crippled economically."

"The whole of North America can be crippled militarily with guided missiles and atomic weapons," he added, although the UN is primitive, evolutionary and will not bring the millennium, "it stands between us and World War III."

Texas Among Nominees Awaiting Confirmation

Washington, Jan. 12 (AP)—President Eisenhower Tuesday sent to the Senate his nominations for three U. S. Marshals.

They included: Emmett Mitchell Smith, Houston, Texas, for Southern Texas, to succeed Clifton C. Carter, whose term has expired. Smith is general agent for the Franklin Life Insurance Co.

Seven West Texans Charged With Income Tax Evasion

Dallas, Jan. 12 (AP)—Arrest warrants were out today for seven West Texans—five farmers and two merchants—whom the Federal Government has accused of income tax evasion in 1947.

U. S. Dist. Atty. Warren Logan said that if the cases had not been filed this week, they would have been barred by the six-year statute of limitations in such offenses.

J. B. Haire, Littlefield farmer, and his wife are accused by the Government of showing a gross income of $1,293 in 1947 with no tax due. Actually, Government attorneys said, the Haires gross income was $50,711.96 with $21,255.98 in income taxes due.

Others Charged

Others charged included:

Frank H. Jernigan, Pampa farmer, who paid a $343 tax on a reported income of $3,674.34. The Government says Jernigan actually should have paid a tax of $8,486.89 on $25,077.54 income.

E. L. Carraway, Spur automobile dealer, accused of evading $3,284 in 1947 taxes. The Government said Carraway and his wife paid payment of $1,840.52.

Reuther's Union Paid Witness $5,000 for Story

Detroit, Jan. 12 (AP)—Walter Reuther's CIO United Auto Workers paid Donald Ritchie $5,000 in reward money for his story of the union president's attempted murder.

And, the Detroit Times reported, the money was paid to Ritchie's wife almost an hour after his escape—kept an official secret some 16 hours. It was in $100 Canadian bills. Windsor police speculate Ritchie waited on a side walk outside while an intermediary delivered the cash.

Presumably what might be left of the money today was aiding Ritchie in his flight—the fifth day since he slipped out of police "protective custody" and never reappeared.

Union Admits Payment

The big auto union, a participant in total offers of $220,000 in rewards in the Walter and Victor Reuther shootings in 1948 and 1949, publicly declared last night it paid the $5,000 to Ritchie.

Ritchie, 33-year-old Canadian petty thief, is the missing key witness in the assault conspiracy case against four men and is also now himself a defendant. A warrant was sworn out against him yesterday.

As the fantastic case brought new ramifications, there were these other developments:

1. The two policemen guards who permitted Ritchie to slip free from a Detroit hotel suite were given lie detector examinations but the first phase of the tests showed nothing irregular.

2. Wayne County Prosecutor Gerald K. O'Brien ordered a conference of subordinates and others to get, he said, all the facts relating to the payment to Ritchie.

Case May Collapse

The prosecutor, whose felony case against the four men named by Ritchie as Reuther conspirators threatens to collapse, said he had not been aware of the union's payment of money.

The union's formal statement said an "arrangement" for the payment of the money to Ritchie's wife was worked out "without the knowledge of law enforcement agencies."

Direct mention of "Ritchie's wife" added a further mysterious element.

She has never been positively identified. It was assumed, however, that she was the good-looking "Elizabeth" or "Betty" who visited Ritchie in his hotel-suite confinement and later signed a $1,400 check for Ritchie's purchase of an automobile in Windsor, Ont., Saturday, 24 hours after his disappearance.

Committee Asked To Ease Credit

Enid, Okla., Jan. 12 (AP)—Major Oklahoma farm organizations, painfully aware of the perilous plight of cattlemen in this plains country, Tuesday called for more liberal credit to livestock growers.

An appeal was submitted to members of the House Agricultural Committee holding a one-day hearing here as the wind-up to a cross-country tour to study farm requirements.

Phil Ferguson, former Oklahoma Congressman representing the Oklahoma Cattlemen's Assn., presented the credit proposal with the endorsement of the Northwest Oklahoma Cattlemen's Assn., the Farmers Union, Farm Bureau, the Oklahoma Grange, and the United Livestock Raisers Assn.

BULLETINS

New York, Jan. 12 (AP)—Hundreds of shouting pickets paraded in Manhattan today in an organizational strike against 260 firms of New York's vast garment-making industry.

Denton, Jan. 12 (AP)—U. S. Rep. Frank Ikard informed the Denton Record-Chronicle from Washington today that the Federal Civil Defense Office has approved the transfer of its Southwestern regional office from Dallas to Denton.

Seoul, Jan. 12 (AP)—The U. S. 8th Army reported two Army lieutenants were killed today when their L19 observation plane crashed into a mountain and burned. Their names were withheld.

100 Dead or Missing In European Snowslide

Vienna, Austria, Jan. 12 (AP)—More than 100 persons are dead or missing in a major avalanche disaster in the Vorarlberg region of Austria, police at Bregenz reported today.

The toll was announced as other vast snowslides throughout Central Europe's mountainland claimed at least 23 dead and 44 missing.

Police said that more than 50 of the victims of the Vorarlberg disaster were missing in the village of Blons.

The avalanche blocked the small Lutzbach River and many of the missing may have drowned.

The other 50 persons listed as dead or missing were from scattered villages in Vorarlberg Province, police said. The reports indicated that the sudden avalanches may add up to the nation's worst snow disaster. Only three years ago more than 124 people were buried alive in a similar catastrophe.

The snowslides severed communications and isolated hundreds of villages.

Rising temperatures were melting the snow, bringing threats of more avalanches.

The slides dealt death and destruction through picture postcard villages in the Austrian Tyrol, the Bavarian Alps, Northern Italy and Switzerland.

The snowslides are the result of the most severe blizzards in several years.

In Austria seven were known dead and 39 missing.

In Switzerland, the death toll rose to 14 known dead, with five people still feared buried.

In the Bavarian Alps area of Germany two were killed.

More Slides Indicated

Rescue squads toiled by lantern light through the night to dig out people buried by huge masses of melting snow which carried tree trunks and boulders. Grim rumbles from the mountain sides indicated more slides.

In many areas snow piled as high as 13 feet. Up to four feet of new snow fell on mountain tops in Bavaria during the night, but at many points drifts were thawing rapidly.

Railway traffic on the main east-west railroad between Vienna and Switzerland was at a standstill. West of the Arlberg Pass 40 avalanches roared down on the tracks and a key bridge was believed destroyed. The line was blocked also east of Innsbruck.

As new storms piled up fresh drifts in many areas of Northern Italy, rescuers, after a week's battle through blocked mountain passes, reached five villages isolated near Udine. The hamlets were nearly out of food.

New Mass Waiting

However, the bureau warned that a wave of freezing air was waiting to move in on the area from the Northwest and Canada as soon as the snowstorm is gone.

Sleet extended as far south as North Carolina yesterday. There was snow in Georgia.

North of Washington, D. C., the sleet coated heavy snowdrifts with a treacherous icy surface, crippled traffic and brought accidents on roads, streets and sidewalks. Adding to the death toll were sledding mishaps and heart attacks as many persons bucked the snow and sleet afoot or tried to shovel it.

Toll by States

Today, this was the state-by-state death toll:

Washington, D. C., area, 7; Maryland, 2; Pennsylvania, 16; New Jersey, 15; New York, 5; Connecticut, 7; Rhode Island, 2; Massachusetts, 6.

Snow flurries still drifted down on parts of the area early today, but the Weather Bureau said it would end in the New York City area in the forenoon and somewhere later toward Boston as the storm moved out to sea.

Up to a foot of snow piled up in some places yesterday. Philadelphia had 10 inches, its heaviest in seven years. New York recorded a 9.6-inch blanket as of midnight, the most since a 15-inch fall in 1949.

Temperatures plunged, hitting 27 below zero in one spot in Maine.

Bill Provides Large Increase In Allotment

Washington, Jan. 12 (AP)—With echoes of West-South differences still rumbling, the Senate today took up the problem of fixing the 1954 national cotton acreage allotment.

The Senate was to have considered the bill yesterday but it recessed early because of snow and icy streets.

Before the upper chamber is a bill approved by its agriculture committee to set at 21,379,000 acres the area which cotton farmers can plant this year under production controls.

Benson Set Acreage

This compares with the 17,910,000 acres set by Secretary of Agriculture Benson last year when he invoked controls. Benson said at the time he was required by law to reach this figure but stated he would recommend Congress hike it to about 21 million acres to avoid hardships. Cotton farmers planted more than 25 million acres last year.

The Senate bill would provide a basic allotment of 21 million acres plus 315,000 acres as a national reserve. Half of the reserve would go to California, Arizona and New Mexico and half to the 15 Southern cotton states. The measure also would provide that no state should be cut more than 34 per cent under its 1952 plantings—a provision that would give 59,000 acres to Arizona and California.

Southerners Object

Southerners generally object to this last allocation to the West. They contend the Western states haven't "earned" that acreage on the basis of past plantings and that the ultimate result will be smaller allotments for the South.

The West has contended that without the extra acreage stipulations in the bill, growers in that area would be forced to make drastic cuts this year.

While the bill represents something of a compromise, there were some reports that Southerners in the Senate, if they believe they can make a successful fight, may attack the Western features of the bill.

In any case, Southern members in the House have organized to alter the bill more to their liking after the Senate passes it in its present form.

McCarthy Gets New Assignment

Washington, Jan. 12 (AP)—Senate Republicans voted Tuesday to put Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) on the Rules Committee—a new assignment which will increase his power in the Senate.

As a Rules Committee member, McCarthy will be in on any debates—and votes—there as to what funds should be allowed for his investigations.

The Rules Committee post is an additional assignment for McCarthy. The assignment was the only surprise in the list of new committee posts announced after a conference by all GOP Senators.

U. S. Army Officer Helps To Rescue Child In Snow

Vienna, Jan. 12 (AP)—A U. S. Army lieutenant and two Austrian gendarmes reportedly rescued a two-year-old child—said to be on the point of death—from a snow-bound Austrian village Tuesday.

The sick child was brought down from the lofty village of Birschbichel high in the Teinernes Meer (Stone Sea) Mountains near the German frontier. There was no immediate indication of the tot's ailment.

Police had called the U. S. Army to help remove the marooned child to a hospital. Lt. Sidney H. Cook, of Marshall, Texas, instructor at the U. S. Army's mountain training center in Austria, immediately left in an Army "Weasel"—an over-snow vehicle.

Roads in the area had drifts 12 or more feet high.

TRIAL OPENS

El Paso, Jan. 12 (AP)—An official of the National Labor Relations Board Tuesday was called as the first witness in the trial of Labor Leader Clinton Jencks, charged with falsifying a non-Communist affidavit.

U. S. SOLDIER KILLED

With U. S. 24th Division, Korea, Jan. 12 (AP)—A U. S. soldier was killed and three others were injured seriously yesterday when their bulldozer hit and exploded an old land mine near Pusan at the south tip of Korea. The Army withheld the names until relatives are notified.

Texas Farmers Must Pay Part Of Hay Freight

Austin, Jan. 12 (AP)—Texas farmers and ranchers will have to chip in, in some instances, on future freight bills for drought emergency hay.

State Agriculture Commissioner John C. White and Defense and Disaster Relief Coordinator W. L. McGill said yesterday the State-Federal hay program will pay half the freight costs up to a maximum of $10 per ton.

In the past, the program paid half the total bill and railroads absorbed the other half.

Future Purchases

White said past freight costs to the program have averaged $12.44 per ton. That would mean ranchers would have to pay an average of $2.44 per ton on future purchases.

The new payment policy will apply to farmers and ranchers who already have allotments for drought hay but have not yet placed orders, White said.

The commissioner closed down the program last Friday. He said yesterday it would remain closed down until it could be determined how much of the allotments already approved will actually be used.

He estimated 130,000 tons of hay will have been allotted as of close of business today. If all those allotments are used, he said, all funds will be exhausted, including $400,000 in additional Federal aid money authorized last week.

Navy Cutback Will Bring Plant Layoffs

Washington, Jan. 12. (AP)—A cut-back in production of one of its fast new jet fighters, resulting in layoffs at a Dallas aircraft plant, is blamed by the Navy on slow deliveries of engines.

The Navy announced yesterday production of the F7U-3 Cutlass by Chance-Vought Aircraft, Inc., at Dallas will continue but at a lower rate than was originally planned.

Production of the attack version of the Cutlass, scheduled for first delivery in the latter part of 1954, will continue, the Navy said. Chance-Vought also will continue production of the Regulus guided missile for the Navy.

Chance-Vought said at Dallas the cut-back will force the immediate laying off of 1,500 workers and that an additional 1,000 men would be dropped in about 10 days. Chance-Vought has been employing about 14,700 aircraft workers.

U. S. Ministers To Leave Italy

Rome, Jan. 12. (AP)—A Church of Christ evangelist said today that six other American preachers of the church whose visas have expired have been ordered to leave this predominantly Roman Catholic country.

The order was disclosed by Cline R. Paden of Brownfield, Texas, one of the first group of preachers to come to Italy after the war to establish the Church of Christ here.

Paden is en route to the United States to report on what he described as the "continued difficulties" in Italy. Since his arrival he and other members have been involved almost constantly with Italian police authorities and the Interior Ministry in efforts to regularize their activities.

Hopes for Reversal

The Texan expressed hope, however, that Italian authorities would change their decision and permit the six to remain in Italy. He said his own permit expired last August and had just been renewed.

Paden said the Church of Christ in Italy now has 25 churches extending from Milan and Turin in the north to Southern Italy and Sicily.

The American evangelist is scheduled to sail from Le Havre for the United States Jan. 25. He has planned a speaking tour including lectures at Abilene Christian College, Abilene, Texas, and at Brownfield.

Murder Charges Filed In Ride Slaying Case

Tucumcari, N. M., Jan. 12. (AP)—Murder charges were filed yesterday against Milton Carl Justice, 24, Pawhuska, Okla., in the hitchhike slaying of a naturalized soldier in Canadian, Texas, Saturday.

Justice was accused in the death of Edward G. Meyer, 24, Washington, D. C., a native Belgian who was headed for the West Coast to attend an Army Russian-language school.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Victor Breen said Meyer, a private first class, died from knife or glass wounds "or both."

NEWS CONFERENCE SET

Washington, Jan. 12. (AP)—President Eisenhower will hold a news conference tomorrow at 9:30 a. m. (CST).

DISASTER TALK—Miss Hazel Heywood of St. Louis, nursing representative of the American Red Cross, and L. L. Howell, Vernon fire chief, check some of the critical jobs which would need to be done in case disaster

Senator Predicts Passage Of Reorganization Formula

Washington, Jan. 12. (AP)—Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore) Tuesday promised to fight a Senate committee reorganization formula worked out by Senate leaders, but they predicted it would win anyway.

The formula is designed to permit the Republicans to retain control of all important legislative committees even though they are a minority by one vote in the Senate.

Senators Knowland (R-Calif) and Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex), the party leaders, agreed upon the plan yesterday and said they expected it to win easy approval.

Morse Opposed

Morse announced he would oppose the scheme because it leaves him on the Public Works and District of Columbia Committees, generally regarded as undesirable assignments.

The Knowland-Johnson plan, involving a change in Senate rules, will give the GOP 18 bonus seats on committees as the technical Senate majority. They now have 14. Bonus seats are posts which Senators may hold as a third committee assignment, in addition to the two which go automatically to each Senator.

Aim Is GOP Control
Some such device as this was needed to let the Republicans control the committees, since there are only 47 GOP Senators to 48 Democrats.

The new plan will give the GOP

Chiselers Included Among Health Insurance Firms

Washington, Jan. 12. (AP)—Dr. Paul Magnuson said Tuesday there are "many chiselers" among companies that offer health insurance policies to the public.

Magnuson, former medical director of the Veterans Administration, mentioned no firms by name in testimony prepared for a House Commerce Committee hearing.

The committee is making a study of research being conducted on various major diseases. It also is seeking to find the best ways of enabling people to meet the costs of illness.

Magnuson, who headed former President Truman's Commission on the Nation's Health, said the insurance firms he criticized put fine print into their policies, excluding from coverage the big medical expenses that "break the back of the average wage-earner."

CAN PLANT STRIKE ENDS

New York, Jan. 12. (AP)—A 42-day strike against 36 of the American Can Co.'s plants ended Tuesday and negotiators signed a new contract providing a 15-cent-an-hour package for the CIO workers.

Atomic Planes Predicted Within Next 25 Years

Washington, Jan. 12. (AP)—Gen. James H. Doolittle predicted yesterday atomic-powered aircraft will fly "probably within 25 years."

He added that it is "entirely probable" that an earth satellite will be built within the next 50 years, and that attempts will be made to send missiles to the moon. By an earth satellite, Doolittle meant a platform suspended just outside the gravitational pull of the earth, to be used for various scientific purposes.

The Democrats decided to go along with an increase in the Republican bonus seats, one Democratic source said, so that the Republicans could not contend that Democrats kept key bills bottled in committees.

GOP Senators Also Oppose Farm Program

Washington, Jan. 12. (AP)—Sharp dissatisfaction with some aspects of President Eisenhower's farm program was voiced Tuesday at the first 1954 conference of all Republican Senators.

The conference was behind closed doors. Chairman Millikin (R-Colo) declined to discuss the farm debate in detail except to say that some GOP Senators "did not feel happy about the general farm situation."

Moscow Says Economy Of U. S. Faces Crisis

London, Jan. 12. (AP)—Moscow Radio told the Russian people Tuesday the American economy was dropping "into the abyss of a crisis" as a result of military spending.

Reviewing the work of Congress, the broadcast, heard here, said: "During the past year the position of the governing Republican Party in Congress has deteriorated."

"Here are some figures testifying to the nature of the difficulties. In December, 1953, one-third less steel was smelted than in the last month of the year before. Big automobile firms cut production by 10 per cent. The number of unemployed has been doubled in one year."

"The vast military expenditure which swallows almost three-quarters of the budget is dragging the American economy into the abyss of a crisis. The governing circles of the U. S. A. however, striving to find various remedies to improve the economy, evidently have no intention of reducing the armaments race."

M-K-T Will Discontinue Some Passenger Service

Oklahoma City, Jan. 12. (AP)—Passenger train service by Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad Co. was ordered discontinued by the Oklahoma Supreme Court Tuesday.

Involved are two daily trains between Woodward, Okla., in the northwestern part of the state, to the Oklahoma-Texas state line near Wichita Falls, Texas.

Senator Flays Tax Policies Under Truman

Washington, Jan. 12. (AP)—Williams (R. Del) told the Senate Tuesday about what he called a "disgusting example of gangster coddling" by tax officials under the previous Democratic administration.

Renewing his one-man crusade against tax violators, Williams said his latest case involved Sam Cammarata, convicted Detroit bank robber, now reported serving out the balance of a 15- to 30-year sentence in Michigan.

Williams said Cammarata, known by numerous aliases, slipped back into this country in 1939 after being deported to Sicily, but paid no income taxes from 1939 to 1946 when Treasury agents found him hiding out in Ohio.

Was Not Prosecuted

Instead of bringing criminal prosecution, Williams said "the Treasury Department allowed this gangster to file belated tax returns for each of the years involved and dropped all efforts for prosecution."

"Just who in the Treasury Department is responsible for this extreme leniency to another racketeer is a question which thus far I have been unable to obtain," Williams said in his prepared speech.

He said he had been advised by the Treasury Department that "due to the fact that I do not have any official committee status" the law forbids giving him information about the case.

Williams is a member of the tax-writing Senate Finance Committee but he refused an offer by Chairman Millikin (R-Colo) last year to appoint him chairman of a special subcommittee to probe tax irregularities.

Woman Dies Here Tuesday

Miss Nora C. Cooper, 71, of Matador, died at 10 a. m. Tuesday in a Vernon convalescent home. Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. Wednesday in Matador Methodist Church, of which she was a member. The pastor, Rev. W. V. O'Kelly, will officiate.

Burial will follow in East Mound Cemetery at Matador. Local arrangements are under direction of Sullivan Funeral Home.

Miss Cooper was believed to have been the first child born in Motley County, on Sept. 5, 1882. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Cooper. Surviving is a brother, J. J. Cooper of Matador.

Rogers of Alexandria, Va., the former Dolly Jane Moore, is planning to make the trip with the Andersons for a visit here with her mother, Mrs. W. R. Moore. Mrs. Moore will meet her daughter in Wichita Falls, but the Andersons will spend the night following Mr. Anderson's speech at the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce's annual meeting Wednesday night. They will come to Vernon Thursday morning and spend the week-end with Dr. and Mrs. Emory Hollar. No formal functions are being planned for their entertainment, I understood, as both Mr. and Mrs. Anderson have expressed a desire to rest. Mrs. Anderson is planning to do some landscaping at their home on Mimosa Lane while she is here.

Spelunkers Plan Fun Next Month

Washington. (AP)—Some 30 people are going to have the time of their lives next month, crawling on hands and knees as much as a half-day at a time and not seeing the light of day for a week.

The 30 are spelunkers, people who explore caves scientifically, and spelunkers, people who explore caves for the fun of it.

The treat in store for them is an expedition through the unexplored part of Crystal Cave, in Mammoth Cave National Park, Ky.

To Explore Cave

The National Speleological Society, organized of the expedition, has announced plans for it to enter the cave the morning of Feb. 14 and remain until the night of Feb. 20. The society said the trip would be "probably the longest underground and most fully organized cave-exploring expedition ever conducted."

The leader is Joseph D. Lawrence, Jr., of Philadelphia, an electronic engineer. Other members, all paying their own way, will include a patent examiner, businessman, a dog trainer, a farmer, a physician, a writer, a cabinet maker, at least two women—a former schoolteacher and a bookkeeper—and at least one foreign cave enthusiast, Henri Gargullo of Mar-selles, France.

Site Described

Lawrence's description of the site chosen for the operational camp, takeoff point for the plunge into the wholly unexplored part of the cavern, tells much about what makes spelunkers' hearts beat faster:

It is two miles and "more than a half-day's crawl, 6½ hours, from the entrance." It was chosen because "you've just squirmed through a lot of very tight passages," and suddenly you come into a room a mile long and 50 feet wide and 20 feet high and it looks mighty big."

The spelunkers say at least 40 miles of the cave's twisting corridors "have never felt man's breath." They plan to breathe as much of that underground air as they can in a week, while studying the geology, flora, fauna, weather, water, history and folklore of the cave.

Plans Are Elaborate

Elaborate plans call for a chain of bases, linked by specially-laid telephone lines, organization of supply and "on-call" parties, facilities for the expedition physician, Dr. Halvard Wanger of Shepherdstown, W. Va., to study the mental and physical effects of prolonged underground exertion, and for the day-by-day compilation of data reported by the explorers.

Sleeping quarters will be established near the underground tomb of Floyd Collins, who discovered the cave in 1927.

Collins was trapped in a nearby sand cave and died despite prolonged rescue efforts that aroused the whole world.

Cattlemen's Association Still Opposes Supports

Colorado Springs, Colo., Jan. 12. (AP)—The American National Cattlemen's Assn., its president said Tuesday, opposes price supports and controls for the nation's livestock industry.

Sam C. Hyatt of Hyattville, Wyo., said in an address for the opening of the Association's three-day convention that government cannot "give you anything which it has not first taken from you."

In another address for the morning session, Dr. Byron T. Shaw of the U. S. Department of Agriculture told the cattlemen that by 1960 the United States will need 13 to 13½ billion pounds of beef and veal, compared to 12 billion pounds furnished last year.

HULL ON FORMOSA

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 12. (AP)—Gen. John E. Hull, U. N. Far East commander, inspected Chinese Nationalist military forces in Southern Formosa Tuesday and lunched with Gen. Chou Chi-jou, chief of the Nationalist general staff.

Teacher Pay Conference Is Postponed

Austin, Jan. 12. (AP)—The next step in Gov. Allan Shivers' attempt to settle the touchy teacher pay controversy has run into a one-week delay.

State Education Commissioner J. W. Edgar has postponed the conference seeking a compromise until Jan. 20.

Edgar said chief reason for the postponement was illness of H. W. Stilwell of Texarkana and inability of several other conference members to attend on the previously set date, Jan. 13.

Plan Calls for $402

Stilwell is a member of the subcommittee which is to report a compromise proposal to the full committee of 25. The plan calls for a $402-a-year boost for teachers. Three of the subcommittee members were appointed by Shivers. The other three represent the Texas State Teachers Assn.

Shivers said last week his decision on whether to call a special session to try to solve the controversy depends on attitudes of the conference members and lawmakers toward the compromise proposal.

Jet Pilot From Vernon In Air Show

Lt. Robert E. Harrison of Vernon is one of eight pilots of Navy Banshee jet planes showing off their sleek carrier-based aircraft Tuesday afternoon at Wichita Falls Municipal airport.

The exhibition from 3 to 5 p. m. is open to the public and was arranged by the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce and the Navy Department. Civilians are invited to inspect the planes and climb into them for a pilot's feeling of the controls which push the jet's speed up around 600 miles per hour.

Lt. Harrison attended Vernon High School and has been in the Navy 10 years. Since November, 1951, he has been attached to the 141 Fighter Squadron, called the Iron Angels.

Upon his arrival Monday at Sheppard Air Force Base, Lt. Harrison was greeted by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hart of Odell. His brother, Don Harrison of Midland, married the former Miss Maxine Hart. Their mother, Mrs. William L. Harrison, lived in Vernon while they were in school. She died in California a number of years ago.

The squadron will leave Wichita Falls Wednesday to continue training maneuvers prior to returning to its carrier, the NAS Miami, off the California coast.

Comet Jetliner Crash Probed

London, Jan. 12. (AP)—The pride of British commercial aviation, the Comet jetliner, was a grounding casualty today pending a "minute" investigation of Sunday's crash of the eight-mile-a-minute aircraft in which 35 persons died off Elba.

The government-owned British Overseas Airways Corp. took its seven Comets off commercial runs in Europe, Asia and Africa. The crash in the Mediterranean was the seventh involving a Comet since the aircraft went into regular service 15 months ago, and the third in 10 months with fatalities.

In all, 89 persons have died in the aircraft. Two French airlines also grounded the six Comets they fly. The Royal Canadian Air Force said it would keep the aircraft in operation for the time being. The RCAF has two.

Taxpayer Still Must File That Income Tax Return

Chicago, Jan. 12. (AP)—An unidentified taxpayer apparently became disgusted while trying to figure out his income tax.

Ernest J. Sauber, district internal revenue director, received a bulky envelope which contained 150 paid bills and business receipts—plus some street-car transfers. Postage on the envelope was 57 cents.

Sauber said the man apparently decided to turn the job over to the Government. But he returned the package along with a tax form and a book of instructions.

Jury Selection Expected To Require Several Days

Amarillo, Jan. 12. (AP)—Several more days are expected to be used in selection of a jury for an injunction suit here brought against the Santa Fe Railway and 16 non-operating unions.

Individual questioning of the 200-man venire started yesterday in the 108th District Court by Judge E. C. Nelson.

The original suit, brought by a group of Amarillo employees of the railroad, sought to enjoin the company and the unions from signing a union shop agreement.

Judge Nelson issued a temporary injunction after Santa Fe attorneys filed a cross-action against the unions and sided with the employees in the dispute.

Both VHS Cage Teams Play Wichita Falls Tuesday

Lions Move To Snyder January 14

The Vernon Lions, both A and B squads, will get in some game-time licks Tuesday night in preparation for their next district games at Snyder Thursday night. They will face teams from the Wichita Falls Boys Club on the Vernon court.

Coach Bob Percival plans to go with his usual lineup of Gene Miller at center, Chris Krebs and Bobby Harvey at guards and Dick Lowke and Jack Bolton at forwards.

In the B encounter, Coach Buddy Frey plans to install Tommy Smith and Charles Spears at forwards, Melvin Hobratsch at center and Keith Morris and Jerry Pearson at guards. If Smith takes up where he left off last Friday night in the Breckenridge game, in which he netted 28 points, a call for new nets to replace burned out ones may be sounded.

Bolton, the scoring leader of the A squad, has maintained an approximate average of about 15 points per game, checking in with 20 in the Breckenridge tilt.

Following the Wichita Falls game, the Lions will journey to Snyder Thursday night and to Sweetwater the following night. Both games will be district encounters. Vernon has lost to Plainview and defeated Breckenridge for a 1-1 district record, while Snyder hung a loss on Big Spring and fell to Lamesa.

While most of the scoring burden has fallen on the shoulders of Bolton and Miller, Krebs and Lowke and substitute Ronnie Zaicek have been coming to the fore in recent games. Krebs got 13 points in his last outing. Zaicek and Carl Franks, while second line men, have been averaging two or more quarters a tilt for the last four weeks.

The first game starts at 6:30 p. m.

GLOVE DATES CHANGED

Lubbock. (AP)—Dates for the Lubbock regional Golden Gloves tournament have been changed to Feb. 4-6, inclusive. Director Jack Thomas said yesterday the change had been made from Jan. 28-30 to avert conflict with Amarillo's regional meet which runs from Jan. 26 through Jan. 30. Open class champs from Lubbock will box in the state tournament set for Fort Worth Feb. 17-22.

IN SPIRITED RALLY

Baylor Defeats Arkansas, 63-59

(By The Associated Press) The whole pack was after Southern Methodist, the Southwest Conference leader, as the loop basketball season turned into its second week.

Monday night, Baylor's Bears were trailing the Mustangs a little closer as they defeated Arkansas' grim Razorbacks 63-59 with a rousing second-half rally.

Texas Christian, not expected to go far this season in conference play, was to play potent Rice, and the University of Texas, tied for the lead with the Methodists, was to meet lowly Texas A&M Tuesday night.

Texas should tighten her first-place knot in the game at College Station, but Rice, which faltered in its first conference go with SMU, was no cinch to win over the Christians at Houston.

SMU won her favorite role, along with Texas, by whipping Rice after the Owls had won 10 straight non-conference tussles and ranked 11th nationally in the AP basketball poll.

Tuesday the Owls had slipped to 15th place after the SMU loss and a 78-53 rebound over Texas A&M.

The taller Razorbacks led Baylor until Monday night's game lacked only 5 minutes and 5 seconds of being over. Then, thanks to the shooting of Tommy Strasburger, Don Dickson and Murray Bailey, the Bears forged ahead 56-52.

Arkansas' Floyd Sagely came through with three goals and a free throw to pull the Porkers up and cut Baylor's lead to 60-59 with 55 seconds to go. But the rest of the Porkers were through for the night and Baylor added three free throws. Arkansas had the ball only once more... and couldn't hit.

The aggressive Porkers committed 30 fouls, and then watched the sharp-eyed Bears dunk 33 of their 44 feet throws through the basket. The Porkers outscored Baylor 20-15 on field goals but made only 19 of 32 shots from the foul line.

Tuesday night's games are the last scheduled until Friday when Rice and Texas tangle in an important title at Austin and TCU and A&M meet in one that doesn't mean too much at College Station.

The Methodists will try to maintain their pace Saturday night in the lone conference game against Arkansas and the Porkers are due to be fired up after their Monday night loss to Baylor.

Along The Sideline:

Comments by Cates

See where Big Spring, like Al-tus, is having a hard time lining up non-district opponents for the 1954 grid season.

The Steers, in rushing to the State finals in Class AAA, may have discouraged prospective opponents. Word that Frosty Robinson, the All-State back who was instrumental in taking the Steers so far along the path to victory, is only a junior also might have scared some coaches.

The weather these past few days hasn't been fittin' for man or beast, let alone a child. But Monday morning, some brave youngsters could be seen romping on the new outdoor basketball courts near the high school.

The way I see it, the building of those courts was a wise move and will pay off in better basketball teams for the varsity. A boy just doesn't become an accomplished player the same day he begins bouncing the oval. It takes hours of concentration, and with the addition of those courts, boys can be getting their licks in during the free time they have from their studies. Youths also now have a place to practice during the hours school is out.

Now that Jerry Coody has used up his eligibility as a college grid player, wonder if he will settle down to the serious business of saving souls. Coody, a part-Indian Baptist minister, is a study in contrasts. He is often asked how he can go about the business of healing the sick in spirit one day and go on the gridiron the next day and massacre his opponents.

Coody has an explanation for that seemingly inconsistent attitude. "Its ruggedness is impersonal. When I run over a tackler or cut him off at the ankles, I don't hate him. I thought everybody understood that. Football and other sports develop the human body in keeping with the dignity of man. The body is the temple of the Holy Spirit. As such it should not be neglected. There is an obligation to perfect physical endowments by those so gifted. Football is an aggressive sport. So should be your religious conviction. Religion should be vital and dynamic." Wonder if Don Goss, the SMU tackle, who now is minus three teeth as a result of a head butt by Coody, believes his dignity has been enhanced.

Notre Dame is noted for its great football players, but during the past season, the school received some publicity as the home of a candidate for an Oscar award as the outstanding actor of the year.

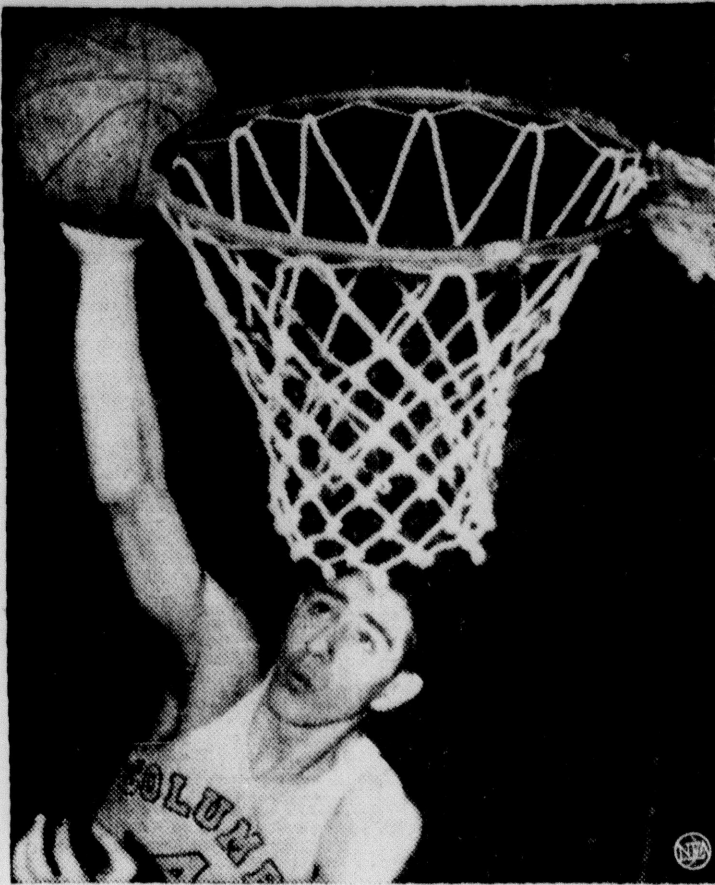

An Irish player feigned an injury to stop the clock and give the South Bend team time for one more play before the half ended in a game with Purdue. The move worked and Notre Dame scored, and as everybody knows, escaped with a tie instead of a loss.

Comes time to consider Oscar candidates, Hollywood will have no choice but to give much thought to gifting the man from South Bend with the emblem of acting supremacy.

BOBCATS WIN 52ND GAME

San Marcos. (AP)—Southwest Texas State's Bobcats won their 52nd straight home-court basketball game here last night by smothering Trinity University, 92-38. Southwest Texas, a Lone Star Conference power, took a 25-3 lead after the first quarter, and Trinity of the Gulf Coast Conference was never in contention.

His Shortstop Replacement Awaiting Reese Retirement

New York. (AP)—Capt. Peeewe Reese, the great Brooklyn shortstop, is not yet ready to retire. But when he is, the Dodgers have a replacement waiting in the wings. He is Don Zimmer from St. Paul.

Since Reese will be 35 years old next July, it is almost a certainty that Zimmer, 12 years Peeewe's junior, will be kept around. And it would come as no surprise if the "Little Saint" (he's 5-9 and weighs 165) has steady employment around August and September.

Zimmer, a really fine hitter with extraordinary power to all fields for such a comparatively small chap, has an added obstacle to overcome in addition to the usual ones that confront all rookies. Last July 7 he had his skull fractured by a pitch and was in a coma for five days, undergoing surgery for the removal of a blood clot.

The operation was a complete success and his recovery is complete. But the question as to whether he will face pitchers with his previous youthful fearlessness

Rumors on George Staying At A&M Are Scatched

Houston. (AP)—Talk in Houston that Ray George had been rehired by Texas A&M College as Aggie-land's football coach was partly scatched today.

A report made the rounds yesterday that George already had been "rehired."

But J. P. (Jake) Hamblen, past president of the Houston A&M Club and a member of the Aggie athletic council said the story grew out of a report he made to the Aggie club's weekly meeting. Hamblen told the group that "if they don't come up with somebody pretty good, pretty soon, I'd recommend that they rehire Ray George, if he wants to stay."

Hamblen said last night, however, that "I don't think he wants to stay. He's sticking to his guns." Meanwhile, the A&M athletic council has a meeting scheduled Thursday at College Station.

El Paso Seeks Longhorn Entry

El Paso. (AP)—Sale of the El Paso Texans to an owner who has expressed a desire to switch the ball club from the Arizona-Texas League to the Longhorn League, also a Class C circuit, has left the Juarez indios in a quandary.

But Juarez Business Manager Pancho Montes said yesterday he planned to operate as usual in the Arizona-Texas League if the loop continued to function.

Juarez and El Paso have operated joint territorial rights in the A-T League and for one year in the Southwest International League since the loop was reformed after World War II.

The Texans have been sold by Tom Love to Adolph Coor Brewing Co., Golden, Colo., and Dick Azar of El Paso. Azar has said he wanted to move to the Longhorn League.

However, Azar today said he still was indefinite about the club's future other than that he planned to operate. He said that if he was unable to quit the A-T League, El Paso would field a team in the six-team circuit.

Charles Rates No. 1 Challenger

Washington. (AP)—The National Boxing Assn. rates four challengers as outstanding heavyweights, but it couldn't find one logical contender for Rocky Marciano's title.

The NBA's winter ratings advanced former champion Ezzard Charles of Cincinnati to the No. 1 challenger position on the strength of his knockout of Coley Wallace last month. Trailing Charles, in order, were Nino Valdez of Cuba, Dan Bucceroni of Philadelphia and Roland LaStarza of New York.

Danny Nardico, the fellow who at one time was reported to be Marciano's next opponent, was rated fifth among the light-heavyweights.

There were no major changes in the NBA ratings announced yesterday. The biggest gain was recorded by Rocky Castellani, the Pennsylvanian now fighting out of Ohio, who moved up from sixth to second among the world's mid-weights.

The President's Farm and Labor Messages.

President Eisenhower's messages on the farm program and changes in labor legislation were fairly well described by most impartial observers as charting a middle course. In the main that is true and to the extent that he is able to present a basis for compromises between extreme positions his program will represent progress.

But the basic difficulty is trying to steer national policy in a new direction. We have been trying to mix a controlled economy with a free one and haven't succeeded very well. The failure, however, is not attributable so much to fundamental difficulties as it is to lack of deciding in advance where we want to wind up.

It is easy to say, of course, that price supports for farm commodities is fundamentally wrong in principle, and wind up with a declaration that controls should be abandoned, allowing agricultural products to find their natural place in a competitive market. Most observers agree that the program now in effect, as it has been administered, has brought us up to the 1954 crop with some very embarrassing conditions. The Administration is faced with the necessity of dealing with a problem which has been developing at least three years. Measures which would have been adequate one, two or three years ago won't do the job now.

What President Eisenhower proposes is a gradual absorption of the accumulated surplus. His program will satisfy few. Nobody wants to be the first to suffer the pain of readjustment. But certainly, it would be folly to argue that agriculture should operate without supports or subsidies in an economic system where other factors, notably labor and some favored elements in business, enjoy protection from competition. The President's farm program really isn't much of a departure from existing policies. At least not in principle. It shouldn't be too difficult to reach an agreement acceptable to a majority.

Changes in labor legislation are less radical than have been expected. In the main they are in the right direction. But again, few of the vocal groups will be pleased. John L. Lewis' declaration that a few piddling modifications will not make a slave labor law acceptable probably is typical of the view of most labor leaders.

However, that shouldn't cause too much concern. The labor leaders have been against the Taft-Hartley Act ever since its adoption. But every test of sentiment in Congress and in popular elections, even in sections where organized labor is strongest, the law has been supported. It isn't a slave labor law. The labor movement has done all right since the enactment of Taft-Hartley. Nobody knows that better than Mr. Lewis. Some changes may be in order, but no great harm will result if the law is left as it is.

The test will come later when Congress comes to deal with the President's recommendations. Present prospects are that the farm program will undergo important changes, and, as already suggested, there is little that is urgent about the proposed changes in labor legislation.

Tight shoes are really never very comfortable until right after you take them off.

Adults Need To Give Child Time, Too

By HAL BOYLE
New York. (AP)—"Anything you do for kids takes lots of time. And while we are willing to give them everything else, that is the one thing we are reluctant to give them—time."

"And that is probably why we have so much juvenile delinquency."

I think that remark pretty well sums up the problem of dealing with children. I wish it were my observation, but it isn't.

It belongs to Frank Blair, who discovered the truth of it by living. Frank, who was a transport pilot in the last war, has seven children and makes more money than a successful counterfeiter—except Frank makes his honestly. He is newscaster of the NBC-TV network show called "Today."

But having and loving seven children—and earning them a good living—Frank found wasn't quite enough. Too much of the burden fell on his pretty wife, Lillian.

"With my odd working hours," he said, "I couldn't spend the time with my kids that I felt a Dad should."

Family Round-Table
But Frank, who at 38 looks like a handsome older brother of his children, found the answer—in a family corporation in which each member has a voice in the family decisions. Here's how it came about:

"Lil and I discovered the kids liked to have bull sessions to discuss where they'd got out of line and done wrong or to talk over family projects. We found they didn't mind being punished if they had a voice in deciding whether the punishment fitted the crime."

"At their own suggestion we started having these 'Let's talk it over sessions,' and they developed into mock trials, and Lil and I found ourselves on trial, too, sometimes. We found out what the kids thought we were doing wrong, particularly after one of the kids got the idea of keeping minutes of the meetings."

One Vote for Each Year
Then Frank decided to create a family corporation to rule on all family questions with each member being allowed one vote for each year of his age.

The current voting status is as follows: Frank, 38; Lil, 37; young Frank, 17; John, 15; Tom, 13; Mary, 7; Theresa, 4; Paul, 1; Bill, 1.

Currently the senior partners are able to outvote the junior members of the Blair corporation 75 to 59 in a showdown, but Frank says it doesn't often come to that.

"The kids don't vote as a bloc against us," he said. "The first thing we found out is that they won't take advantage of a situation if you give them a sense of participation. That is the wonderful thing about children—their real sense of honesty and fair-mindedness."

TEXAN GUEST IN CAPITAL
Washington, Jan. 12. (AP)—President Robert J. Kleberg, Jr., of the King Ranch in Texas was one of 15 guests invited to the White House last night for one of President Eisenhower's periodic stag dinners.

THE TALK OF THE TOWN

XX
ANOTHER day passed and Miss Johnson still had made no reply to Adrian Kaye's invitation to come to visit him at Ibberville. Then, late that afternoon, after she had returned home from school, Millie summoned Miss Johnson to the door. There was someone here to see her.

Miss Johnson was surprised to find Mrs. Symes standing in the doorway.

"Just happened to be passing," she explained in the lower hallway as Millie returned to her duties. "And I want a word with you."

Miss Johnson bit her lip in annoyance. This creature undoubtedly had come to present her terms for the summer. And Miss Johnson did not wish to discuss them here, of all places.

Miss Johnson hesitated until she was sure Millie was out of hearing. Then she said, "Couldn't you have waited until later?"

"No, I couldn't," Mrs. Symes spoke sharply. "You and I are going to have our little talk right now, dearie. So where can we have it?"

Mrs. Symes spoke rather stridently and her attitude was grim, even threatening. Miss Johnson got the impression at once that any attempt to thwart this woman might bring on a scene, then and there.

A scene, she could not afford. Miss Johnson spoke quickly. "Very well. You'd better come up to my room."

The teacher led the way, remembering with relief that no one else would be on the upper floor at this hour. The occupants of the other rooms had not yet come home from work and Mrs. Copeland was supervising dinner preparations.

Mrs. Symes stepped through the doorway of Miss Cora Johnson's room. She looked around, inspecting the place from ceiling to the floor and blocking the path from the doorway as Miss Johnson stood uneasily behind her.

"Hm!" Her voice was a comment. "Nice cozy place you got here, dearie. You don't do so bad for yourself."

She stepped out of the way as Miss Johnson came into the room, uneasily. The living quarters that had been her one extravagance in the past now was really more than she could afford while paying blackmail to Mrs. Symes. Miss Johnson thought bitterly.

"I'm sure, Mrs. Symes, that you didn't come here to discuss how I live," Miss Johnson said crisply.

"You're right, dearie. I didn't."

Without an invitation, Mrs. Symes seated herself in the largest chair in the room. She put her feet firmly together and watched Miss Johnson sit down nervously in a straight-backed chair facing her.

"I'll get right down to business, Miss Johnson," said Mrs. Symes. "Albert tells me you gave him some bad news yesterday afternoon."

"Yes," she said uneasily. "Yes, I did. Albert asked me and I thought I might as well tell him the truth at once. He had to know, sooner or later."

"Sure he did. But he's a pretty disappointed young man about now," said Mrs. Symes.

"I'm sorry. But I warned Albert. And I warned you, Mrs. Symes. Obviously the warnings did no good."

"Obviously," eh! Mrs. Symes' mouth tightened. "Well, obviously, you flunked him, Miss Johnson. And it's also obvious to me that you figured on doing that to Albert all along to get even. I couldn't prove that, but I'll bet I'm not far off."

Anger shot through Miss Johnson. "That's utterly unjust, Mrs.

Symes. I planned on doing no such thing. Whatever has passed between you and me had no bearing on my duty as a teacher."

"That's what you say!"

"It's true. Albert flunked himself. Through inattentiveness and carelessness and shirking his work."

"Okay," said Mrs. Symes. "Have it your way. But it boils down that he didn't pass. He'll be left behind by his class."

"I'm afraid so. I couldn't possibly promote him."

SUDDENLY Mrs. Symes' eyes were dark slits. "Well, I've got news for you, dearie. Honest or not, you're going to promote Albert."

Miss Johnson gasped unbelievably. "You mean—"

"Exactly what I say, dearie," replied Mrs. Symes with a nod of her head. "Now listen! Have you sent in your reports to the principal—or wherever they go?"

"No. Not yet," confessed Miss Johnson. "But that has nothing to do with the matter."

"It has a great deal to do with it. It's a cinch. All you have to do is up Albert's grades to passing. And you're in an awful lot of luck. If those reports were already in, I'd see to it that you went to the principal and tell him you'd made a mistake. As it is, nobody'll ever know."

"You know and I'll know—and Albert will know!"

"Nobody else will ever find out."

"Mrs. Symes!" Miss Johnson struggled to find coherent speech. "I simply cannot do such a thing. Albert's general average was only 64, and passing is 70."

"So what?" Mrs. Symes sneered. "Well, dearie, if you can't take a pencil and change a few figures, you'd better go back to school yourself and learn a few things. Now let's have no more nonsense. You can tell Albert tomorrow that you looked over his papers again and changed your mind in his favor. His Nibs'll ask no questions. He'll be only too glad he passed. Ticked to death in fact."

Labor Troubles Will Grow If T-H Changes Approved

BY JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Jan. 12. (AP)—President Eisenhower and the Government will be a lot deeper in labor-management relations if Congress approves his proposals for amending the Taft-Hartley labor relations act.

Two prime examples among the President's 14 proposals: A fact-finding board to make recommendations in a national emergency dispute; and a Government-conducted vote in the case of any strike.

Under the law now, when the President finds the national welfare is threatened by a strike, he appoints a board to investigate and report back with the facts.

Board Hand-Picked

Eisenhower asked that this be changed so that such a board would make recommendations on what the settlement should be. Since the President handpicks the board, its recommendations become, in effect, his own.

Neither the company nor the union would have to accept the recommendations.

At present workers faced with a decision on a walkout can vote among themselves on whether they want to strike. Or they may leave it up to a selected group of their union officials.

Eisenhower urges more Federal say on this. He said it should be written into law that the Government must conduct a vote among the employees on whether they want a strike.

Voting Time Not Specified

He didn't say, in his message to Congress, whether the vote should be taken before or after a strike started. He said: "Nothing so vitally affects the individual employee as the loss of his pay when he is called on strike." He didn't say "called on to strike."

Almost at once Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.), chairman of the Senate Labor Committee, produced a bill calling for a vote after a strike had started.

There may have been confusion in the administration ranks on this. Secretary of Labor Mitchell told newsmen he thought Smith's bill was going to call for a vote before a strike.

Under a special World War II law—from 1943 to 1945—the Government had to take a vote among workers before a strike could be called in a war plant or one connected with the war.

Strike votes were taken among about 2,100 groups of employees. In about 1,800 cases the vote was to strike, although only a small percentage actually went out. About 300 voted against a strike.

Mediation Clause

Eisenhower also proposed that the Mediation Service should step into a labor dispute where an injunction had been granted; that the Government find better safeguards for welfare funds; and that employers must take an anti-Communist oath, as union leaders now must do.

Those points would all require the Government to have more say in union or company affairs or both.

No one could predict whether Government control, both Federal and State, would be increased as a result of Eisenhower's suggestion for a study to find a way to avoid conflicts of jurisdiction between the two. He urged clearing the way for states to handle what they consider statewide emergencies.

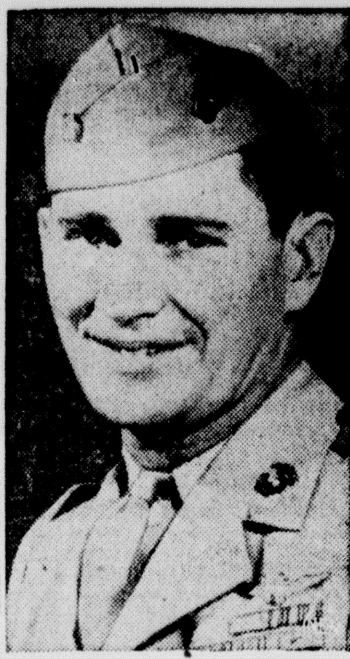

Union leaders and company managers may argue whether Eisenhower's proposed changes do more for one of them than the other. But the net effect seemed certain to be a bigger role for government in labor disputes.

MORE CITRUS FORECAST

Washington, Jan. 12. (AP)—The Agriculture Department, in a forecast based on Jan. 1 conditions, yesterday set this season's Texas orange crop at 1,300,000 boxes compared with an even million last season. The Texas grapefruit forecast was even rosier, 1,100,000 boxes this season compared with only 400,000 boxes last.

VOLCANO ERUPTS

Tokyo, Jan. 12. (AP)—Mt. Asama, a volcano 100 miles northwest of Tokyo erupted twice Tuesday, blowing ashes over two nearby resort towns. No damage was reported. Mt. Asama has been active since Dec. 27.

INTO POLITICS—Maj. Joseph Foss, Marine Corps flying hero in World War II, has announced that he will run for governor of South Dakota in the November elections.

Gen. Dean's Betrayers Sentenced

Seoul, Jan. 12. (AP)—Two Koreans were convicted today of betraying Maj. Gen. William F. Dean to the Communists in 1950. One was sentenced to death and the other to life imprisonment.

Although the prosecution asked five-year prison terms for both defendants, the judge sentenced Choe Chong Bong to death and Han Doo Kyoo to life imprisonment.

Both men admitted accepting $5 rewards from the Reds following the capture of the 24th Division commander. They insisted, however, that they had been trying to help Dean when he was captured.

The general wrote to President Syngman Rhee asking clemency for the two men, but the judge said no official notice of the letter was given to the court.

Real Estate Dealer Sells Brotherly Love in Ads

Washington, Jan. 12. (AP)—Over the past three years mystifying, full-page ads, extolling the merits of loving one another, have appeared in newspapers from Los Angeles to Boston.

They have been mystifying, that is, to almost everyone but Leon Ackerman, who sells real estate locally and brotherly love nationally. He's the man who foots the bills.

The ad appearing in New York newspapers last week was typical. "Love... the greatest gift," it read in large type. "He who understands love understands God, for God is love."

"Love Thy Neighbor"

This was followed by a quotation from John and a couple of sentences of text, winding up with: "Love thy neighbor as thyself."

In the lower, right hand corner, in type so small by comparison it looked almost apologetic, was the name of the nation's leading goodwill advertiser: "Leon Ackerman, 910 17th St. N. Washington 6, D. C."

For most of his 55 years Ackerman never gave a thought to spreading brotherly love on a national scale. He was busy with a thriving real estate business—at times the firm has had as many as 100 salesmen—and what time he could spare was spent in the bar at the Mayflower hotel.

"I've been through hell," he said cheerfully, "and I've sinned like hell. I used to drink 20 to 30 scotches a day at the Mayflower, and I smoked three or four packs of cigarettes. Now I don't touch either. Don't like 'em."

Turning Point Came

The turning point, he said, came on St. Patrick's Day, 1949. He went on an all-night jag and got only a trifle's sleep before appearing at a meeting of his sales personnel.

"My mind went completely blank when I got there," he said. "And then I saw the light."

He later joined the Christian Science Church, embarked on his unusual advertising campaign and, he says, lost most of his love for the pursuit of material things.

"I used to sit here in this office and worry and worry over a little old hundred-acre tract we were developing," he said. "I'd go over it with a magnifying glass—to magnify my troubles, I guess. Now I'm developing 15 miles of ocean front with no problems at all."

How much did the advertising cost? "It really hasn't cost a cent," he said. "It's all God's blessing anyway."

Not Tax Deductible

Could he write it off on his income tax returns? "No. If I did, I wouldn't be giving anything."

Ackerman thinks the full-page treatment shocks the reader into attention and into doing a little thinking. And he's so pleased with results—"I get hundreds of letters"—that he says if he had $50 million he'd splurge it all on one mammoth advertising spree.

There was a pause, and Ackerman looked at your reporter and grinned.

"I know what you're thinking. You're wondering, 'What's the gimmick?' Everybody always is looking for the gimmick. But there isn't any."

"Let's put it this way: Others sell goods, I sell God. Really what's so remarkable about that?"

DIVORCE GRANTED

Chicago, Jan. 12. (AP)—Mrs. Margaret Czarnecki, 35, divorced her husband, Jerome, 49, because, she complained, he paced the floor at night. She said when she suggested he go to sleep, he would beat her and shout: "Nobody can tell me I can't walk."

Classified Ads, the Only Way!

IN NEW JOB—Sen. Thomas A. Burke, Democrat, is Ohio's newest member of Congress. A former mayor of Cleveland, Burke was appointed to take the Senate seat formerly held by the late Sen. Robert A. Taft.

WANTED MEN CAUGHT

Malvern, Ark., Jan. 12. (AP)—Two Corpus Christi, Texas, men wanted for questioning in an attack on an Arkansas State trooper last Thursday, are in custody here. Earl Bryant Ellis, 20, was picked up in Malvern Sunday night. Charles Barrett, 22, was found sleeping in a hayloft a mile away yesterday. State Trooper Clarence Montgomery said both are wanted in Texas on charges of burglary and bond jumping.

JOHNSON COMMENTS

Washington, Jan. 12. (AP)—Senator Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas says the President's labor proposals of yesterday "will receive careful consideration." The Senate minority leader added, "I will be particularly interested in having assurances that the proper jurisdiction of the states is fully recognized in any action that may be taken."

Italian Will Attempt To Form Government

Rome, Jan. 12. (AP)—Amitore Fanfani, 46-year-old left-wing leader of the Christian Democratic Party, agreed Tuesday to try to form a new Italian government. He "conditionally" accepted President Luigi Einaudi's offer of the premiership after former Premier Giuseppe Pella, who resigned Jan. 5, had turned it down.

Press and political observers had generally agreed Einaudi would ask Fanfani to attempt to end the week-long political crisis.
